

The Fabulous Fox

And there I was standing in awe outside of the Fox Theater. Instantly, I knew it would be my favorite place in Missouri. It was beautiful! We entered through the huge brass door into the extravagant atrium. The glimmering gold was everywhere. The walls were covered in fancy designs. There were jeweled chandeliers in every room. Even the bathrooms were magnificent marble. As we took our seats, I felt like royalty in my red velvet throne.

As the show started, the talented orchestra began to play. I was so excited I nearly bounced out of my seat. That's when the tassel and fringed curtain opened, and the show began. It felt like the show came to life. The intermissions always happened at the most exciting parts. I've been there many times now and seen many award winning shows like Wicked, Aladdin, and Cinderella. Everyone should visit the Fabulous Fox.
